Textbook

The course textbook is available for download at the website www.awls.org once you are registered for the course. You are expected to review the textbook prior to the start of the course.

Wildwood Ranch

Wildwood Ranch is a the perfect spot for this course. Participants may stay at the Ranch in the camp cabins or bring their own tents. The cabins are close to the Dining Hall facility where the lectures will be held. The four secluded creek side cabins each sleep 14 people in comfortable twin size bunk beds, open living space and the singular (but generously sized) indoor bathroom and shower facility.

In addition, participants will have the opportunity for canoeing, ziplining, fishing (bring your own pole) or horseback riding after a long day of lectures. Additional fees and liability waivers may be associated with a particular activity. Activities are also dependent on the weather conditions and staffing.

If you do not wish to stay at the camp, the nearest lodging can be found at the Best Western of Hartland, 10087 M-59, Hartland, MI 48353, 810.632.7177. The hotel is 6.5 miles from the camp.

Transportation and Directions
