"Challenging some of the dogmas in posterior
urethral valves"

The John W. Duckett, Jr. MD Pediatric Urology Lectureship invites leaders in the field of pediatric urology to share their expertise with providers practicing pediatrics and urology. After completing this activity, participants will be able to successfully present ideas and concepts that challenge how posterior urethral valves are managed.

Planner: Kate Kraft, MD, University of Michigan
