Team of nurses and doctors from University of Michigan Health System and Henry Ford Hospital embark on a 10-day journey to Migori, Kenya. During the three days of clinic, over 700 patients were examined. (Sherry Day, OD, second from right, standing.)

Dr. Day observes a resident ophthalmologist as he removes a tumor growth from a woman with AIDS.

Dr. Day and new friends in Migori, Kenya.

A local technician and ophthalmologist observe Dr. Day measuring intraocular pressure.

Dr. Day and another new friend.

After cataract surgery

Sunset over the Maasai Mara Game Reserve