

Humanism in Emergency Medicine

PURPOSE

This award recognizes Adult and/or Pediatric Physician(s) who exemplify outstanding compassion, respect and empathy in their daily practice of emergency/pediatric emergency medicine:

- Humanistic health professionals demonstrate careful attention to ensuring their patients feel cared for and supported and foster collegiality among peers. They deliver care that consistently incorporates compassion as a powerful catalyst for healing. They embody professional attributes that emphasize that provision of emergency care is a great privilege – and a great responsibility.

CRITERIA

Humanism in healthcare is characterized by a respectful and compassionate relationship between physicians, as well as all other members of the healthcare team, and their patients. It reflects attitudes and behaviors that are sensitive to the values and the cultural and ethnic backgrounds of others. The humanistic healthcare professional demonstrates the following attributes (“I.E., C.A.R.E.S.”):

- Integrity: the congruence between expressed values and behavior
- Excellence: clinical expertise
- Collaboration & Compassion: the awareness and acknowledgement of the suffering of another and the desire to relieve it
- Altruism: the capacity to put the needs and interests of another before your own
- Respect & Resilience: the regard for the autonomy and values of another person
- Empathy: the ability to put oneself in another’s situation, e.g., physician as patient
- Service: the sharing of one’s talent, time and resources with those in need; giving beyond what is required.
