

I wanted to make sure you didn't miss my previous email about a medical director opportunity in Birmingham, Alabama. I've included some information about the facility below, as well as a brief introduction to ApolloMD, in case you missed it the first time.

Facility Details:

- Vibrant Medical School and Residency Program Community
- 103 acre campus, state-of-the-art Metropolitan Medical Center
- Full Complement of Specialty Backup
- No procedures
- Limited Code Responsibility
- Flexible Scheduling and excellent work-life balance

Must have:

- Excellent documented leadership skills and hospital involvement
- Proven ability to deliver excellence in patient care
- Ability to lead team to consistently achieve quality metrics
- Excellent communication skills with team, operations and Hospital leadership.

Why Practice in Birmingham?

- Nationally recognized school systems and major universities
- A plethora of city amenities to choose from
- Live music, performing arts & fine dining options
- Several outdoor activities and great culture
- Gorgeous state parks and water recreation

Why Practice with ApolloMD?

- Physician Owned and Operated
- Competitive Compensation
- Work Life Balance
- Professional Development Opportunities
- Physician friendly contracts with no restrictive clauses
- Physician ownership opportunities

Visit us at ApolloMD.com

Warmest Regards,

Erica Anderson-Harris
Physician Recruiter
5665 New Northside Dr, Suite 200
Atlanta, GA 30328
Phone: 404-961-6605
Cell: 626-673-5364
eanderson@apollomd.com