It's a place so big, with so much to offer, that local Mainers have a fitting name for it: The County.

But once you get a taste of everything there is to experience here, in Maine's northernmost and largest county, you might remember this area best by its other nickname: The Crown of Maine.

And you'll find treasures in the towns here, too.

It might be a restored Victorian train museum, or a historic 1839 Blockhouse, or a market square that holds its original charm.

There's a modern life up here and a well-preserved history, but you can be assured a warm and friendly welcome from the residents of Maine's northernmost county.

Low cost of living and a state university campus making this area a truly enjoyable place to raise a family!

You are Located 1 hour from to the Airport.

You are 3 hours to Bangor Maine and 5 hours to Portland Maine.
