The Reed M. Nesbit Urologic Society, founded in 1972, holds an annual meeting for urologists who trained or were affiliated with the University of Michigan Department of Urology. This year the Nesbit Society are meeting jointly in Ann Arbor, Michigan with physicians from the Department of Urology, Herlev and Gentofte Hospital & University of Copenhagen, Denmark (CopMich). This year’s program focuses on a wide range of urology topics. The Nesbit Visiting Professor is Dr. Eila Skinner from Stanford University School of Medicine in California and CopMich Visiting Professor is Dr. Peter Schlegel from Weill Cornell Medicine in New York.

Target audience: Physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, nurses, other healthcare professionals, house officers, and medical students of urology

After attending this activity, participants will be able to:
1. implement best practices for treatment of male infertility, prostate cancer, bladder cancer, and acute urology.
2. better understand and apply the diversity initiatives in Urology in the United States and Europe.
3. improve their clinical and surgical skills.

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of the University of Michigan Medical School and the Herlev and Gentofte Hospital & University of Copenhagen. The University of Michigan Medical School is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Michigan Medical School designates this live activity for a maximum of 13 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
