

2021 Pharmacology Virtual Seminar Series

Katharine Smith, PhD

Assistant Professor, Pharmacology
University of Colorado, Denver
Anschutz Medical Campus

Dr. Kate Smith earned her MSci Degree in Biochemistry with Honors from The Imperial College, UK. She then earned a Ph.D. in Molecular Neurobiology from the University College London, UK. From 2012-2015 Dr. Smith performed postdoctoral research in the Penzes Lab, Northwestern University and the Hanley Lab, University of Bristol, UK. She was a Elizabeth Blackwell Institute Early Career Fellow, University of Bristol, UK.

“The nanoscale architecture of inhibitory synapses in plasticity and disease”

Wednesday, April 21, 2021
12:00 – 1:00PM on Zoom

ZOOM :

<https://umich.zoom.us/j/97457732326>