

University of Michigan Medical School - Course Catalog - 2021-2022

Ophthalmology: OPHTH-8101 - Exploratory
Required/Elective	CLIN
Prerequisites:
Restriction days:	30
Keywords:
Course Objectives:
MPathways Course ID	48769
Subl Maize/Blue Designation	None
Rule of 4 Exemption	Exempt from Rule of 4 (no more than four experiences from one department will satisfy requirements for graduation)
Multidisciplinary	No
Grading Basis Code	SF
Special Instructions	This 2-week clinical elective counts toward your general elective requirements for graduation. It does not count toward your clinical elective requirement.
Instructor(s)	Dr. Ariane Kaplan Clerkship Director arianek@med.umich.edu
Course Contact	Lauren Prisk Clerkship Coordinator lgagneau@med.umich.edu 734-763-4088
Site Coordinator	Lauren Prisk Clerkship Coordinator lgagneau@med.umich.edu 734-763-4088
Permission to Enroll	No
Available to Visiting Students	No
On-Call Responsibility	Not required, but available if student would like a shift added to their schedule.
Where to Report First Day of Clerkship	Informational email will be sent to enrolled students by the Clerkship Coordinator.
Time Distribution: Outpatient Clinical Care (%)	95%
Time Distribution: Inpatient Clinical Care (%)	0%

University of Michigan Medical School - Course Catalog - 2021-2022

OPHTH-8101 continued. . .
Time Distribution: Emergency Department Clinical Care (%)	0%
Time Distribution: Service Learning (%)	0%
Time Distribution: Conferences/Lectures/Seminars (%)	5%
Time Distribution: Simulation (%)	0%
Time Distribution: Basic Science Research (%)	0%
Time Distribution: Clinical Research (%)	0%
Time Distribution: Independent Study (%)	0%
Time Distribution: Other (%)	0%
Activities: Expected hours per week in formal educational sessions (sum of lectures, conferences, teaching rounds) - Maximum 40 hours per week	Approximately 3 hours
Activities: Overall number of elective hours per week (Note: M4 electives should carry approximately 40 hours of work per week) - Maximum 80 hours per week	Approximately 50 hours
Course Description	This two-week OBSERVERSHIP is geared towards students looking to determine if pursuing a career in Ophthalmology is a good fit for them (especially those students who've already had exposure to the ophthalmology OR). Students will be exposed to both clinical and surgical settings to grasp an understanding of this field (70% clinical time and 30% OR time). Students expected to improve slit lamp examination skills and pass sign-off. This course will also include lectures highlighting exam skills/equipment, ocular trauma, red eye, imaging, and vision loss.
Coure Description 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Participation, professionalism, attendance in clinic, OR, and at scheduled lectures/meetings/Grand Rounds/CME conferences is required and will be monitored. -Performance on assigned "The Eyes Have It" modules -Performance on Slit Lamp Biomicroscopy Assignment -Score on rotation exam -Completion of course evaluation -Submission of scored lecture schedule

University of Michigan Medical School - Course Catalog - 2021-2022

OPHTH-8101 continued. . .
Course Description 2 cont.	-Feedback received to and from the Clerkship Director team
LCME Topics: Please review the topics below, and check the corresponding checkbox for any and all topics you cover in this M4 course. Coverage is indicated if it appears in your course objectives or as a significant topic covered during your course.	Communication skills, Prevention/health maintenance, Self Directed Learning
Methods to be used in student evaluation include	Clinical assessment form, Participation in conferences, Written/oral exams, Attendance at specified events, Other (specify in course description)
Medical Student Competencies- Patient Care	PC-ps. Perform procedural skills considered essential for patient care
Medical Student Competencies- Practice Based Learning & Improvement	PBLI-sl. Engage in self-directed learning, reflective practice, guided self-assessment, and demonstrate receptivity to feedback
I have reviewed all of the above and the start dates and enrollment limits from Course Set-up for this course.	YES, approved.
Previous Catalog Number	300OPEO.U
Learning Objectives	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrate personal responsibility and professionalism to educators and staff. (Professionalism) (PR-ra, PR-sr) 2. Demonstrate understanding of the ophthalmic examination and how clinical findings contribute to differential diagnosis building. (Patient Care) (PBLI-sl) 3. Demonstrate ability to conduct an appropriate literature search to effectively answer clinical questions. (Practiced Based Learning) (MK-sm, MK-dm) 4. Demonstrate ability to use the slit lamp biomicroscopy to examine patient. (Patient Care) (PC-ps)